This Week's

Graduation Reviewing Officer

Sgt. Maj. Larry W. Morris

Reviewing today's graduation is Sgt. Maj. Larry W. Morris.

In 1981, Sgt. Maj. Larry W. Morris enlisted in the United States Marine Corps and completed recruit training aboard the Depot. He received training here for duty as an administrative clerical clerk and unit diary clerk.

His first assignment in administration was at Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C., where he served as Unit Diary Chief for Marine Corps Combat Engineer School. During this tour, he was meritoriously promoted to the rank of corporal and graduated from Noncommissioned Officers Leadership School, Marine Corps Service Support School, Camp Johnson, as the honor graduate.

In 1983 Morris was transferred to Marine Aerial Refueller Transport Squadron 252, Cherry Point, N.C., for duty as unit diary chief. He participated in several unit deployments to Okinawa, Japan and was promoted to sergeant in 1985.

In 1986, he was transferred to Parris Island as unit diary chief and Battalion Color Sergeant for H&SBn. During this tour he was later assigned to the Manpower Information System Support Office as the Manpower Information System Liaison.

In 1988, Morris was assigned to 3rd RTBn. as a drill instructor. He was later assigned to Special Training Company, Physical Conditioning Platoon and in 1990 he returned to 3rd RTBn., where he was promoted to staff sergeant.

In 1990, Morris was transferred to Officer Candidate School, Quantico, Va., as a drill instructor. During this tour he served as a sergeant instructor, platoon sergeant, and physical training instructor, where he played an integral role in the screening and evaluation processing of officer candidates. While serving at OCS he was meritoriously promoted to gunnery sergeant in January 1994.

Morris was transferred to Marine Light Attack Helicopter Squadron 169, Camp Pendleton, Calif., as an administrative chief in 1994. Following the squadron's return from Unit Deployment in November 1995, he was temporarily assigned as Marine Aircraft Group 39. After returning to HMLA-169 in June 1996, Morris was again temporarily assigned from to train and oversee the MALS-39 administration section from December 1996 to February 1997.

In 1997 he was transferred to Parris Island, as administrative chief, Depot Consolidated Administrative Center and later assigned to Lima Co., 3rd RTBn., as the first sergeant from April 1998 to March 2000. During March 2000, was assigned to Drill Instructor School as the School's First Sergeant.

In 2001 Morris was transferred to Heavy Maintenance Company, 2nd Force Service Support Group, Camp Lejeune, N.C. Serving as first sergeant to Heavy Maintenance Company and later being assigned as the senior enlisted, Second Maintenance Battalion Rear, follow on echelon, during the Battalion's assignment to operations in Kuwait.

In 2003 Sergeant Major Morris was transferred to Marine Aviation Logistic Squadron 31, Marine Aircraft Group 31, Second Marine Aircraft Wing, MCAS Beaufort.

Morris' personal decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (fourth award) and the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal.
